

THE LIBRARY

Host your next social or corporate gathering in The Iron Horse Hotel's Library. This functioning library features vintage tables and lighting, antique Bank of London library chairs, handpainted leather sofas and shelves upon shelves of books surrounding a warm, welcoming fireplace. The cozy space is a perfect setting for any small corporate or social function such as wine tastings or cocktail receptions, luncheons or formal dinners for up to 50. The space has beautiful natural light and can be completely darkened with shades for A/V use.

Please note that the antique tables are extremely heavy and cannot be moved. The room is configured only as shown. Additional seating and cabaret tables can be added.
